Nashville's Mayor Ben West Cites Urban Financial Plight

by Roger Stuart II

• CITIES, EVEN THOUGH they are the bulk producers of county revenue, will continue to be the victims of "sardonic grins or tearful alibis instead of cooperation and financial aid," Nashville Mayor Ben West said here last week.

State Attitude

Mayor West, in giving the final lecture in the School of Government's "The Federal Government and the Cities" series, said that this attitude is the product of rural dominated state legislatures which view cities as "the express creatures of the state."

As such, he said, these same state legislatures believe that cities exist only through "their benevolent tolerance" and are "fashioned to pay the state, not the state pay them."

This attitude is emphasized, West said, by the fact that over half of the county revenue comes from the city taxpayer and that the city gets little money back from the county to pay for municipal services.

Disparities

This disparity in representation and state revenue taxes distorts the whole political process, he said, and gives a "hollow ring to the word democracy."

Rural lawmakers, unacquainted with urban problems have shown themselves incapable, he said, of dealing with "the staggering aspects of transportation" or of being able to intelligently entertain the "enormous implications of the industrial, housing and social problems of densely populated metropolitan centers."

The only basic product a government can give is service, West said, which is more efficiently provided by the community than the individual. But the great preponderance of service rendered to people comes from local governments, principally cities.

Many cities, he said, are in a desperate plight and in a terrible mess, but they "cannot make the proper alignments to return to the paths of progress because every road traveled in that direction dead ends at a great big dollar sign." And this, he said, is "the biggest colloquial rub."

As the "unwelcome step-children of counties and states," West said, the cities "in their quest for honorable survival" receive only pittance, unwillingly doled from higher tax tables. That means they have to go somewhere else for help, he said, and they have no other choice than to journey to Washington.

In 1953, West said, President Eisenhower "was determined to curtail centralized government by returning as many functions to the States as would seem to be reasonable and practical."

Kestbaum Commission

Because of the President's interest, the Kestbaum commission was set up with "The broad objective to study and clearly define the proper role of the national government in relation to the states and their political subdivisions."

After two years, West said, the commission turned in its report the basis of which was that states must give cities their rightful allocation of seats in the legislature or else the tendency would be

Automatic tabulation will obviate the need for the "watcher system" which has been used in the past. The "watcher system" permitted the Student Council candidates to have a "watcher" observe the ballot tabulations during campus elections.

• STUDENT COUNCIL petitioning closed Friday with a last minute flurry that brought to 29 the number of candidates seeking Council office.

An unprecedented seven candidates were automatically elected when opposition failed to turn up.

Of this number Roger Stuart was unopposed for the Vice Presidency, Dick Fischman was unopposed for Publicity Director, Lynda D'Andre for Secretary, Charlie Mays for Advocate, Ben Finkel for Member-at-Large, Cameron Pippitt for School of Government and Pete Wasilewski was unopposed for Columbian College. All are Colonial Campus party standard bearers.

Presidential Race

The presidency turned into a two-way race at the last minute when Dave Aaronson filed in opposition to Colonial Campus party nominee Stan Heckman.

The Junior College race turned into its usual battle with five people petitioning. Martin Gersten is the CCP candidate while Lennie Pappas, Sondra Jacobson, Carlyn Sundberg and John Day are also in the running for the JC post.

Ann Haug, the CCP candidate, and Mary Foster are competing for Activities Director. Al Capp, the CCP nominee, and Ronald Reeves have both petitioned for Freshman Director. Parke Avery, a CCP candidate, and Vickie Allnutt are running for Program Director. Henry Frain, a CCP member, and Alan Hawkins are in the Student Union Chariman's race.

The School of Education post is in a three-way race between Dottie Williams, the CCP choice, Cookie Fischgrund and Jerry Sluger. The Engineering School is a battle between John Calarco, the CCP candidate and Hal Boerlin.

Aaronson's Statement

Dave Aaronson who withdrew his nomination against Heckman during the CCP convention, gave a statement to the HATCHET giving his reasons for running at the last minute.

Aaronson said he was running for President because it was his "sincere belief that the student body must retain the right and responsibility to exercise a choice among competing candidates in Student Council elections."

He said that it was an "alarming fact" that seven candidates for office were unopposed. "Their opposition was eliminated," he said, "by a nominating convention of the CCP, in which less than two percent of the student body of over 13,000 was represented."

Golfers Trip Colgate; Netmen Win Matches

• THE BUFF GOLFERS finished fifth in a field of eight teams in the Greenbrier Tournament the weekend of April 2. This was the best showing ever made by a GW golf team in this tournament.

The tournament was conducted on the basis of total team scores. Each team played six men. The total medal score of each player was included in his team's score. In medal play, unlike in match play, every stroke appears on the scoreboard.

Ohio University came unexpectedly from behind to defend its title of last year. Once again this year the Ohioans won, leaving their closest rivals, Washington and Lee University fourteen strokes off the pace.

The order of finish, and the respective team scores are as follows: Ohio (949), W and L (963), Davidson (968), University of Virginia (974), GW (980), Colgate (986), West Virginia (1011), and Denison (1027).

The individual medalist for the tourney was Dave Vardaman of W and L with a thirty-six hole score of 77-72-149. Runnerup was Steve Synder of Ohio U. with 77-74-151.

Best individual efforts for the Colonials were posted by Ed Bowers 78-76-154, John Dunn 78-76-154, and Captain Joe Haney, 79-76-155.

Weather conditions steadily deteriorated throughout the weekend and finally reached a climax with a heavy downpour Sunday afternoon.

It is significant to point out that the Buff will play four of these eight teams in dual matches later this year. All except West Virginia finished higher than GW at the Greenbrier.

Last Thursday the squad won their second straight dual match by defeating a stubborn Colgate six by a score of 5-4.

The match was decided on the 18th green in the third foursome. Richie Oden won his individual match and combined with Tom Haly to score the best ball point which proved to be the winning point.

Low scorers for the day was Colgate's first man, Don Allen, with a 73. Low man for GW was John Dunn with 76.

The team is now undefeated in its first two matches. Below is a recap of the Colgate match.

First Foursome—0 Points

Joe Haney (GW) defeated by Don Allen (C) 7 & 6

Ed Bowers (GW) defeated by Pete Liebschultz (C) 1 up

• SWEEPING PAST two Southern Conference foes last week, the Buff netmen continued to show rapid improvement. The Colonials defeated VMI 9-0 and William and Mary 7-1.

Number one man Jim Tarr continued to play some of the best tennis of his collegiate career, defeating both opponents by identical scores 6-3, 6-2.

Also encouraging to Coach Bill Shreve has been the rapid improvement of number 5 and 6 men, Dick Fischman and Larry Church. Fischman and Church started the season slowly, but both have come on to play more consistent tennis in the last few matches. Their improved play will be a big boost to the team.

The middle of the lineup, Jim Whitehead, Ken Silverstone, and Elliott Swift, continued to win in their respective positions. All three have contributed decisive victories in recent matches.

The Buff netmen play five matches in the next two weeks. After meeting Washington and Lee, and Virginia, they take on three of their toughest opponents, Georgetown, Wisconsin, and North Carolina, during the Easter holidays. The University of North Carolina will probably be a tough test for the Colonials. The Tarheels, who inflicted a 7-2 loss on GW last year have fielded an even stronger team, perhaps one of the best in the South this year.

Buff Nine Drops Two Wild Games

• THE BUFF NINE came out of a stormy weekend with a 1-2 record. On Friday against the VMI Keydets the Buff dropped a 15-8 game. Last Saturday the Colonials came out on the short end of a 27-17 score against Colgate.

Going into the seventh inning against VMI, the Buff, on the arm of Denny Hill, and the Keydets were all even at 3-3. Then the roof caved in against Hill, Charlie Padgett, and Moe Hedetniemi. The visitors from Lexington, Virginia, came up with 12 runs in the last three frames, scoring 4, 5 and 3 runs in the seventh, eighth, and ninth innings respectively.

Saturday's game was what might be called a "Comedy of Errors" on a windswept, chilly diamond. Of the 13 errors committed in the game, the Buff nine accounted for eleven. Scoring in all but one inning the Colgate sandloters parlayed thirteen hits into 27 runs while the Buff managed 7 safeties in its seventeen run attack.

Forfeits Mar Softball Opening; PSD, PAD Take Double Bills

by Dan Solt

• THE OPENING WEEKEND for Intramural softball was marred by eight forfeited games.

Phi Alpha Delta, Phi Sigma Delta, and AEPI jumped off to an early three way tie for the A1 League lead by sweeping double-headers last Sunday. PAD edged ROTC 11-9 in its opener and then shut out the Med Jrs. 4-0 on a one-hitter by Folk. PSD downed the Med Jrs. in its first game 6-1 on a two-hitter by Eisenberg. Leon and Ennis each hit a homer for the winners. AEPI kept pace with little effort. The APEmen received forfeit wins over Adams Hall and ROTC.

DTPhi, the Little Docs (Med F and S) and the Windagoes emerged from last weekend's action as the teams to beat in the A2 League. Tom Smegal pitched two-hit ball to enable DTPhi to shut out SAE 9-0. With Smegal again on the mound in the second game, the Lawyers marched to an 18-2 win over DTD. Dale Sutherland homered in the first inning with two men on base to start the rout.

The Little Docs opened their season in excellent style, as Rundle Mason pitched a no-hitter against SPE. Mason also banged a home run and struck out nine SPE batters on the way to an 18-0 win. Mason and his teammates continued their torrid pace in their second game by downing SAE 14-3 as Mason again led the Medics with a homer and a three-hit pitching job. Two of the SAE hits were home runs by Al Jones.

The closest contest, as well as the most exciting one, was between the Windagoes and DTD who battled 7 innings before the Windagoes came out on top 5-4.

With the score tied 3-3 at the end of six innings, the Delts pushed across one run on a pair of hits and a walk in the top of the seventh. In the bottom of that inning the first two Windagoes batsmen were retired. However the complexion of the game changed quickly when Bill Watkinson walked, and Jerry Hansler followed with a 2-bagger down the right field line, scoring Watkinson from first. Stafford, the Windagoes first baseman, hit a hard grounder, too hot for the Delt second sacker to handle and Hansler scored the tie-breaking run to end the game.

The Tarheels, a team comprised mainly of physical education majors opened with close victories over PIKA and TEP to take the lead in the A3 league. They edged PIKA in the first game 5-4

by Roger Stuart II

• CITIES, EVEN THOUGH they are the bulk producers of county revenue, will continue to be the victims of "ardonic grins or tearful alibis instead of cooperation and financial aid," Nashville Mayor Ben West said here last week.

State Attitude

Mayor West, in giving the final lecture in the School of Government's "The Federal Government and the Cities" series, said that this attitude is the product of a rural dominated state legislature which view cities as "the express creatures of the state."

As such, he said, these same state legislatures believe that cities exist only through "their benevolent tolerance" and are "fashioned to pay the state, not the state pay them."

This attitude is emphasized, West said, by the fact that over half of the county revenue comes from the city taxpayer and that the city gets little money back from the county to pay for municipal services.

Disparities

This disparity in representation and state revenue taxes distorts the whole political process, he said, and gives a "hollow ring to the word democracy."

Rural lawmakers, unacquainted with urban problems have shown themselves incapable, he said, of dealing with "the staggering aspects of transportation" or of being able to intelligently entertain the "enormous implications of the industrial, housing and social problems of densely populated metropolitan centers."

The only basic product a government can give is service, West said, which is more efficiently provided by the community than the individual. But the great preponderance of service rendered to people comes from local governments, principally cities.

Many cities, he said, are in a desperate plight and in a terrible mess, but they "cannot make the proper alignments to return to the paths of progress because every road traveled in that direction dead ends at a great big dollar sign." And this, he said, is "the biggest colloquial rub."

As the "unwelcome step-children of counties and states," West said, the cities "in their quest for honorable survival" receive only pittance, unwillingly doled from higher tax tables. That means they have to go somewhere else for help, he said, and they have no other choice than to journey to Washington.

In 1953, West said, President Eisenhower "was determined to curtail centralized government by returning as many functions to the States as would seem to be reasonable and practical."

'Fun-Packed' Colonial Cruise Adds On Two Special Events

by Jack Baller

• COLONIAL CRUISE, as if it were not fun-packed enough already, has had two more enjoyable events added to the program.

The first of these, a display of beach fashions, will no doubt double the number of males planning to attend. Each University sorority has volunteered one girl who will model the latest of this year's line of beachwear, supplied especially for the Cruise by the Hecht Company.

The fashion show will take place during the boat ride down to Marshall Hall.

The music of Paul Frank and his Collegians will highlight the evening's events. Mr. Frank and his band have appeared at many University functions, Student Council dances and TGIF parties, among them. The band will play at Marshall Hall during the evening.

The boat will leave from Maine Ave. S. W. at 2:00. At 3:00 pm the boat will arrive at Marshall Hall and the activities will begin.

The first event on the agenda is the student, faculty and alumni softball game. Among the faculty members slated to appear in the starting line-up are Professor Richard "Scooter" Stephens, Professor Jack "Babe" Campbell, and Professor Robert "The Arm" Willson. All non-varsity ballplayers are encouraged to play at the Cruise.

Also on the program will be various races and relays including: three-legged races, egg in the spoon relays, wheelbarrow races and a (hold on now), mystery race.

More Games, Prizes

After dinner at 5:30, there will be more games and more prizes. Among these will be badminton doubles, a horseshoe tournament and a balloon throwing tournament. At 8:00 pm there will be dancing to the music of Paul Frank and his Collegians.

At 10:45 the boat will leave for D. C. and will arrive at 12:00 midnight. There will be dancing on the boat. There will also be a boat returning from Marshall Hall at 5:30 pm.

There will be baby-sitting facilities for children of faculty members. At Marshall Hall, there will be many rides such as the roller coaster, merry-go-round.

Charles Parker Wins First Prize In Speech Contest

• CHARLES PARKER SPEAKING on "Quality Education for Schools" was the first prize winner of the Isaac Davis Speech Contest.

Second prize winner was Trudy London who spoke on "Beauty and a Symbol," and third prize winner was John Prokop who spoke on "No Discrimination Here."

The prizes of $25, $20, and $15 were established by the Honorable Isaac Davis, of Massachusetts, in 1847. They are awarded annually to members of the senior class who have made the greatest progress in public speaking during their connection with the University.

The judges for the contest were Mrs. Linda Corrick, Mrs. Nancy Wilmer and Mr. William Elsen of the Federal Mediation Board. Other participants and their topics were: Aze Fellner, "Educational Snafu;" and Gayle Cook, "Blood without Cause."

The winners were determined by a public speaking contest in which the participants delivered original orations. Only members of the senior class who are candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science were eligible.

With the non-directive approach, we'd just try to think you into smoking L&M's. We wouldn't have to tell you about how L&M, with its Miracle Tip, pure white inside, pure white outside, has found the secret that unlocks flavor in a filter cigarette. And about how this means fine tobaccos can be blended not to suit a filter but to suit your taste.

Following the non-directive approach, we'd simply show you the package. And this would give us more time to polish our wedge shot, which we seem to have trouble getting airborne. Or even moving.

Lillian Brown Wins 'Golden Mike' Prize

• LILLIAN BROWN, Director of the University's Radio and Television department, was named the top winner of the most coveted woman's award in broadcasting, the McCall's magazine "Golden Mike," for her work in producing the "Classroom 9; Russian" series last year. The "Golden Mike" awards are given annually to the year's outstanding women in radio and television.

Miss Brown is cited in the May issue of McCall's magazine, for her work in the first Russian language program on a commercial television station.

The 6:30 am course proved so successful that the University had to hire extra clerical help to register the more than 3,200 people in February, 1959.

The awards will be presented at the McCall's Award Dinner on May 7 in Cleveland, Ohio. The dinner is the traditional highlight of the annual convention of the American Women in Radio and Television.

"ACTIVITIES REIGN," WILL be the theme of the annual May Day Program on May 6th at Lisner at 8:30 p.m.

The featured event of the evening will be the crowning of the May Queen and her court. Girls who were elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" are eligible to be May Queen.

On Friday all University women will vote to choose five finalists. Next week University women will vote for a finalist.

The announcement of the Student Council winners, the new editors of the HATCHET and Cherry Tree plus initiates into various honoraries will be highlighted at May Day.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be Ed Rutsch.

Irwin Indicates Role Of Creative Thinker

• THE UNITED STATES must meet the demand for creative political thinkers or be strangled by the challenge of Communist progress, Congressman Donald Irwin (D-Conn.) said here last week.

During his talk on "The Need for Creative Thinkers in America," sponsored by the Student Council, Phi Sigma Rho, the Philosophy honorary, and the Writers' club, Irwin said that there is a tendency for the creative thinker to withdraw from public activity and to refrain from acting openly.

The emotional outcome of most big issues in politics tends to repulse the creative thinker. Consequently, he channels his intellect in other fields, such as radio, TV and newspapers. The creative thinker should be aggressive and he should insist on fulfilling his original role in politics; as he is no less responsible for our society than the "man on the street," said Congressman Irwin.

Irwin cited former president Harry Truman as a creative political thinker who was not afraid to act in the open.

The objective of the creative thinker is to communicate to the American people the significance and the problems of education on which our survival may depend and to become active in politics.

Without his help the U. S. cannot solve the complex problems it faces in the politically vacillating continents of South America, Africa and Asia, said Congressman Irwin.

Although intellectuals have always been connected with the liberals we have reached a stage where the intellectual could be used in conservative politics to give a stimulating and fresh point of view on the issues, Irwin said. He is convinced that the democrats and liberals would like to see forceful and creative thinking among the conservatives of our country.

Irwin's authority on intellectuals lies in his long record of achievements and national service. Born in the Argentine, he is bi-lingual, speaking Spanish and Portuguese. He received his degree in 1951 and graduated from the Yale Law School in 1954 and has served for a long time on many Connecticut educational, legal, economic, medical and cultural committees and organizations. Congressman Irwin is a strong advocate of civil rights and was a proponent of the

Medical Faculty Become Officers

• SIX UNIVERSITY faculty members were recently elected to office in the Washington Academy of Medicine.

Dr. Joseph H. Roe, professor emeritus of Biochemistry, is the new president of the Academy; Dr. Errett C. Albritton, professor emeritus of physiology, was elected vice president.

Dr. Angus M. Griffin, associate dean of the University's School of Medicine, is the new secretary, and Robert C. Cook, professional lecturer on genetics, was elected treasurer.

Dr. Benjamin F. Dean, assistant clinical professor of surgery, was elected a member of the board of directors of the Academy, and Dr. Daniel L. Borden, professor emeritus of clinical surgery and a member of the University's board of trustees, was selected to be a member of the Academy's committee on admissions.

strongest bill brought up. Recently while serving as a delegate to the Caribbean Assembly he side-tracked to Cuba to get first-hand experience of Castro's government.

Alpha Lambda Delta

• ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA, national freshman women's honorary society, initiated fourteen new members last Saturday.

Among the initiates were Marilyn Band, Sandra Bergman, Sandra Boorstein, Rita Ferrara and Ellen Garfield. Also accepted into membership were Carolyn Newell, Linda Nusbbaum, Carol Nyquist, Stephanie Patchen and Elaine Tanenbaum: Judith Wallington, Melinda Young, Faye Rubin and Hiroka Watanabe were also initiated.

Senior Certificates were awarded to those senior women who, in their four years of college, had maintained a scholastic average of 3.5 or better. The recipients of these certificates were Lynn Baumann, Andrea Brown, Rona Englander, Letty Katz, Judy Lefkowitz, Irene Kimelblatt and Anne Marie Sneeringer. The annual Senior Book Award, presented by the national organization to the graduating senior woman with the highest scholastic average, was awarded to Judy Lefkowitz.

The following girls were elected as officers for the year 1966-1967: Maria Bode, president; Marilyn Band, vice president; Mollie Harper, secretary; Carol Nyquist, treasurer; Stephanie Patchen, historian; and Cynthia Rhodes, senior adviser.

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.03 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U. S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:

Practically flat floor... real foot room for the man in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.6 cu. ft. of extra storage space. Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, flatter ride. Rear-engine traction... that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the rear wheels.

You probably realize already that the mileage figures Corvairs recorded in the Mobilgas Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the cars met every kind of driving condition—rugged mountain grades, long country straightaways, congested city traffic—those mileage figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.

Better Elections

• THE STUDENT COUNCIL'S decision to secure the cooperation of the Administration for the use of the IBM facilities to count and double check the ballots, and to purchase voting booths is, we think, a sound one.

This action is significant for two reasons. First, it further demonstrates the democratic principles on which our country was founded. The right of secret ballot is one of these principles. The IBM machines and the voting booths will insure an honest election.

Secondly, the acquisition of these facilities demonstrates the willingness of the administration to cooperate with the student body. If approached in a correct manner, as the Student Council did, the administration, will assist in the completion of goals set down by the student body.

Special thanks should go to Mr. Kreppens who is in charge of operating the University's IBM machines. He was most helpful in securing the machines by having a direct conference with the administrative authorities who would make the final decision on whether or not the students could use the machines.

In conclusion, we hope that through the use of the voting booths and machines we may be guaranteed of a smoothly run election.

Point Of View

Cleaning Up Politics

by Aaron Knott

• STUDENT COUNCIL elections are upon us once again, but something new has been added. This year, for the first time, the student body has a chance to judge a campus political party and to decide if the party has done a "good" job by either electing or rejecting the party's nominees.

Unfortunately, doing a "good" job may not be enough to insure our budding political party of a return. The Colonial Campus party may be defeated because it is the only party, and people may feel that the CCP is becoming too powerful.

Engineering Awards

• AWARDS WERE presented to outstanding seniors in the Engineering School Saturday night by the Engineering Alumni Association.

At the Annual Engineers Banquet and Ball held at the Presidential Arms, John Roberts received the mechanical engineering award and Lee Potterton the general engineering award. Ray Howland received the electrical engineering award and Lee Snyder received the civil engineering award.

In addition to the Alumni awards, the Sigma Tau freshman award went to Earl Flowers, the Institute of Radio Engineers National award to the outstanding member of the University chapter of I.R.E. went to Leon Sibul, the Institute of Radio Engineers Washington chapter award to the outstanding member of the University I.R.E. went to Lee Potterton, and the American Institute of Electrical Engineers Washington chapter award to the outstanding member of the University chapter of A.I.E.E. went to David Lokerson.

I am among those who believe that the school should not have a one party system, and I believe that other parties will develop as more issues come up. I do hope that the one political party that we have is not destroyed before other parties develop, because it would be a shame to return to the chaotic conditions that prevailed before the party was organized.

The CCP should not be damned because no opposition has yet developed. If the Colonial Campus party has carried out programs that are what the student body desires, it deserves to be returned to office. If it has not done what the students desire they should not return the party to office.

The fact that little opposition to the CCP has developed seems to indicate that the party's representatives have done a "good" job. Perhaps the reason why the CCP has been able to carry out popular programs is that it has actively sought students' opinions. All its meetings have been open to the public, and the CCP has carried on an active advertising program to get students to attend. The CCP has held night meetings, on occasion, to get the opinions of those students who are not able to attend afternoon meetings.

In spite of the immense effort the CCP has made to get students' interest and opinions, and almost 300 students actually joined the party, the CCP's opponents claim that it is an unrepresentative minority.

Perhaps this argument can be illustrated best by the presidential race. There are two candidates for the office, one nominated by the CCP and the other not. The person opposing the CCP's nominee states that he thinks, "A Student Council President must owe his allegiance to the entire student body and not to just a small unrepresentative segment." However, he stands by the CCP platform and says, "I would like to think that I played no small part in its success."

It is interesting to note that the student body is being offered only one program. It is also interesting to note that this anti-CCP candidate was not only in the CCP but actively sought the nomination of that group. This candidate finally withdrew from the race just before the vote was taken, and in his withdrawal speech highly praised the CCP and stated that he was not going to run for office this year.

One or two other defeated candidates for the CCP's nominations have also filed for election. One can only wonder if these people are more concerned with getting themselves elected than with "cleaning up politics." It is certainly strange that these people did not see the need for "cleaning up politics" until after they were no longer able to get the CCP's nomination.

Letters To The Editors

Spring has sprung; once again a young man's fancy has turned to what girl's have been thinking about all winter long—student elections. Interest in the Student Council elections appears to be high for several reasons.

First, the students will have an opportunity to vote on the proposed Student Council re-organization plan adopted by the Council some weeks ago. As you will recall this proposal would divide the Council along more nearly functional lines, thus improving the level of services that student government may provide.

Second, this year represents the first year that students will be given an opportunity to consider the effectiveness of any continuing group. That group is the Colonial Campus Party. Continuing responsibility is the key to effective party government, either on the campus or in the nation at large.

Throughout the year the CCP has had such a broad base of popular support that no opposition party has developed. Fortunately, however, for the development of effective two-party student government, significant eleventh hour opposition has appeared. However, the mere existence of opposition is not enough to reach the goal of effective two party government; to be effective that opposition must, like the Colonial Campus Party, be continuing.

I would urge all the students in the University to participate in the forthcoming elections. The decisions made at the ballot box May 5th and 6th will determine the pattern of student government at GW for years to come.

Parade and Review

• THE UNIVERSITY'S AIR Force ROTC cadet group will hold its annual parade and review ceremony from 1 to 2 pm on Wednesday at West Potomac Park.

This ceremony will be highlighted by an inspection of the Cadet Corps by Dean Latimer, the presentation of awards to outstanding cadets, an exhibition performance by the internationally famous U. S. Air Force drum and bugle corps, a trick drill demonstration by the Cadet Pershing Rifles Squadron and the Cadet Corps passing in review.

Parking space will be reserved for private cars on 23rd Street between Constitution Avenue and the Lincoln Memorial and on the south side of Constitution Avenue between 22nd and 23rd Streets.

All members of the faculty and student body are cordially invited to attend this activity.

Reorganization Plan Needs Referendum

• A TWO-THIRDS VOTE of the Student Council and ratification by a majority vote in referendum to the student body subject to the approval of the Student Life Committee is necessary to adopt this proposal.

1. STUDENT COUNCIL (Article III) The Student Council shall consist of the following members: President of the Student Body, Vice President, Student Comptroller, Advocate, Secretary and one representative from each of the separate schools and colleges of the University.

II. ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE (new article to Title I)

A. Powers and Duties: The Activities committee shall have the power to coordinate and execute within the authority of the Student Council all student activities except intercollegiate athletics and intramural athletics. The Activities committee shall submit a comprehensive report on student activities to the Student Council at the last Student Council meeting of each month. Mimeographed copies of the report shall be submitted to each Student Council officer and to the Directors of Men's and Women's Activities and to the President of the University. At the First Student Council meeting of each month appropriate members of the Activities committee shall be present to give oral reports and answer questions.

The Activities committee shall be responsible for conducting the petitioning for all Student Council co-chairmanships. After due deliberation they shall submit their nominations to the Student Council for final approval. Co-chairmen shall submit their plans in writing to the Student Council one week after selection.

The Activities committee may, by majority vote, place any resolution before the Student Council where it shall be handled as a motion in new business introduced and seconded.

B. Membership: Membership shall consist of:

1. An Executive board which shall consist of the following members: Activities Director, Program Director, Publicity Director and Freshman Director.

The Activities Director shall serve as chairman of the Executive board and President of the Activities committee. The Program Director shall serve as Vice Chairman of the Executive board and Vice President of the Activities committee. The Publicity Director shall also serve as corresponding secretary of the Activities committee. The Freshman Director shall also serve as recording secretary of the Activities committee. Executive board members shall be elected at large by the student body. Candidates shall have the same qualifications and be elected in the same manner as all Student Council members with the exception of the School representatives. Executive board members shall serve as permanent members of the Activities committee for their term of office.

2. Representatives of the Activities committee shall consist of one representative from each major student activity. Representatives may be added or removed from office by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council. Until such action may be taken, the representatives shall consist of the following: One delegate from the Drama board, Panhel, Interfraternity council, Religious council, Old Men, Big Sis, Radio Station, Booster Board, HATCHET, Cherry Tree and the Engineering School Publication who shall be the highest ranking member of his organization. The co-chairmen of all activities under the Student Council shall serve on the Activities committee. A new co-chairmanship entitled the Student Union Board is hereby established. Also, one delegate elected at large by the Women's dormitories shall serve as members of the Activities committee, with the stipulation that delegates shall not serve from the same dormitory for two successive years unless there shall be no candidates from the other dormitories.

C. Meetings:

The Executive board members shall meet at least once every other week. The Activities committee shall meet not less than once a month. Absence without proxy to meetings of the Activities committee for two consecutive meetings and/or three absences by any member shall result in suspension proceedings before the Student Council. Two-thirds vote of the Student Council shall be necessary for a member to be suspended. Co-chairmen shall be required to attend meetings from their selection until the completion of their activity. If in the opinion of the Executive board the co-chairman fails to fulfill the responsibilities of their office, they shall recommend their removal to the Student Council.

Election Forum

• THE STUDENT COUNCIL Election Forum will be held Monday, May 22 in Lisner auditorium at 8:30. At this time, the candidates for major Student Council offices will present their platforms and answer questions pertaining to their plans for the coming year. All students are urged to attend.

• THE BEAUTIFUL Walnut Hill Estate was the scene of AEPI's Annual Dinner Dance last Saturday night. President Stan Heckman (a repeat performer) swore in the new officers and M.C. Mel Feldman amused the parents with his subtle humor. Awards were presented including Outstanding Brother to Stan Heckman and Murray Netzer (congratulations) and the hilarious ASA, UMA, AMOPA, etc. Surrounded by her court and amid a shower of roses, lovely Lynda D'Andre was crowned the 1950 Sweetheart of AEPI. Her court, every bit as lovely—Linda Silverberg, Susan Scher and Gail Benjamin and Roselynn Haas. Despite some exciting misadventures—Mel Feldman left town, Sweet Stevie Sandler lost his handbag, and Earl Landau . . . —everyone had a great time, even the parents.

Making the scene were Marty Reichgut and Sheila Spegal, Bob Hirsch and "Benjie," Al Kilscheimer and Sue Scher, Steve Sandler and Ellie Ahr, Aaron Knott and Ellen Garfield, Harvey Wertlieb and Linda Silverberg, Merritt Murry (he finally got there) and Beverly Lipz, Dave Feldman and fiancée Robin Ressler, Burt Kaptoward direct federal-municipal dealings.

The effect of the report, West said, although an academic masterpiece, "has been, for all practical purposes, non-existent."

President Eisenhower's concern about the decentralization of government process was further evidenced when he proposed a Federal-state task force to examine Federal-state relationships at the 1957 Governor's Conference, West said.

The President said "that unless action is prompt and effective, urban problems will soon almost defy solution."

Mayor West said the task force resulted in neither "prompt nor effective solutions."

Many metropolitan problems, he said, defy localization because of geographical, financial and aesthetic considerations.

"I am convinced," he said, "that the role the Federal government has assumed in the formation and execution of its grant-in-aid programs is a proper and legitimate one. But I have heard the governors, especially in my part of the country, yell about state's rights. Their biggest trouble," West said, "was they yelled about rights and not responsibilities."

The aid program is not mandatory, he said, and no local official "worth his salt will lose his soul to the Federal government for using money being returned to his locality for a useful purpose."

EUROPE MADE SIMPLE: No. 1

Summer vacation is just around the corner, and naturally all of you are going to Europe. Perhaps I can offer a handy tip or two. (I must confess I have never been to Europe myself, but I eat a lot of Scotch broth and French dressing, so I am not entirely without qualification.)

First let me say that no trip to Europe is complete without a visit to England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Lichtenstein, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Luxembourg, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Russia, Greece, Yugoslavia, Albania, Crete, Sardinia, Sicily, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Lapland, and Andorra.

Let us take up these countries in order. First, England.

The capital of England is London—or Liverpool, as it is sometimes called. There are many interesting things to see in London—chiefly, the changing of the guards. The guards are changed daily. The old ones are thrown away.

Another "must" while in London is a visit to Buckingham Palace. Frequently in the afternoons Her Majesty the Queen comes out on the balcony of the palace and waves to her loyal subjects below. The loyal subjects wave back at the Queen. However, they only continue to wave as long as Her Majesty is waving. This of course is the origin of wave lengths from which we have derived numerous benefits including radio, television and the A&P Gypsies.

Be sure also when you are in London to visit the palace of the Duke of Marlborough. Marlborough is spelled Marlborough, but pronounced Marlboro. English spelling is very quaint but terribly disorganized. The late George Bernard Shaw, author of Jo's Boys, fought all his life to simplify English spelling. He once asked a friend, "What does g-h-o-t-i spell?" The friend pondered a bit and replied, "Goatee." Shaw sniggered. "Pshaw," said Shaw. "G-h-o-t-i does not spell goatee. It spells fish. Gh as in enough, o as in women, ti as in motion."

It must be remembered, however, that Shaw was a vegetarian—which, all in all, was probably a good thing. As Disraeli once remarked to Guy Fawkes, "If Shaw were not a vegetarian, no lamb chop in London would be safe."

But I digress. We were speaking of the palace of the Duke of Marlborough—or Marlboro, as it is called in the United States. It is called Marlboro by every smoker who knows flavor did not go out when filters came in. Be sure you are well supplied with Marlboros when you make your trip abroad. After a long, tiring day of sightseeing, there is nothing so welcome as a fine, flavorful Marlboro and a foot bath with hot Epsom salts.

Epsom salts can be obtained in England at Epsom Downs. Kensington salts can be obtained at Kensington Gardens, Albert salts can be obtained at Albert Hall, Hyde salts can be obtained at Hyde Park, and the crown jewels can be obtained at the Tower of London.

Well sir, now you know all you need to know about England. Next week we will visit the Land of the Midnight Sun—France.

Prexy Candidates Speak

as all but one of the candidates ran unopposed," he said.

His statement continues as follows: "The formation of the Colonial Campus party, in which I actively participated was a positive step in the direction of the goal of active student participation in self government, but it has not been and could never be the complete answer so long as it remains without an active and stimulating opposition to guarantee democratic processes and sensitive, responsive concern for the needs of the student body as a whole.

"What is happening, and was bound to happen if left unchecked, is the gradual materialization of a power hungry minority, anxious to protect its vested interests, and on its way to establish totalitarian rule, by default of the rest of the student body.

Candidate's Allegiance

"A Student Council President must owe his allegiance to the entire student body and not to just a small unrepresentative segment. In the day to day decisions that a Council President is compelled to make, allegiance to a special interest group unchecked by an opposing party, is a misrepresentation of the will of the student body.

"The President must be willing and able to work through the CCP and any other vehicles in order to serve the best interests of all. Judge for yourself, from my past experiences and activities, whether I am qualified or not to rise above cliques and vested interest and have the ability and attitudes to serve your interest as a whole."

By way of a platform, Aaronson the current Council Advocate stands by the CCP party platform because, as one of its original founders, he says, "I would like to think that I played no small part in its success."

Further Aims

His further aims will include attempts to put the Potomac County magazine on Campus Corner, an increased interest in better voting facilities for all school elections, an increased interest in varsity debate competition performances for the student body, attempt to see the Student Union's food improved and work toward the establishment of second political party.

Finally he hopes to press adoption of a check cashing service on campus by borrowing money from banks, and charge a small fee for the service to students.

The biggest aim in his platform is to press for the adoption of a Student Council Reorganization amendment which he fostered, and if elected, to see it through to completion.

Heckman Runs On Record

Mr. Heckman is running on "record as a party member for one year and as an independent for one year before the party was formed."

"My record," Heckman said, "speaks for itself. I promised to form a political party and help to develop one. I developed the idea of a Student Council orientation assembly and saw it become a growing concern.

"I further supported last year's CCP platform," he said, "and down the line and I was instrumental in getting many of the party's ideas passed." For example, he said, "the party platform promised to try getting Young Democrats and Young Republicans on campus. Because of the party's efforts, that is soon to become a reality.

"Also in support of the party platform, I helped to get Hi-B accepted, and it has developed into a perpetual function.

Kept Tight Budget

"As Comptroller of the Council this year, I kept a tight reign on finances and also saw to it that more money was spent on few Student Union dances. The budget made many of the Council functions successful this year," he said.

As Chairman of the Council Check Cashing committee, Mr. Heckman said that "while we didn't get such a service, we discovered the problems that prevented having one. I think the recommendations to the Council which were passed unanimously will prove beneficial to future students and future Student Council. Those recommendations, brief were to inform incoming students

University Offers Career Program

• THE UNIVERSITY AND four departments of the U. S. Government jointly announced a co-operative "earn-while-you-learn" program open to all qualified high school graduates who cannot afford college.

Under this program which will begin immediately, enrollees may attend the University full time while holding a part-time position in one of these four agencies: National Bureau of Standards, Federal Communications Commission, Department of the Navy, or the Department of State.

The program is open to both men and women and jobs are available as typists, stenographers and student trainees. To qualify, candidates must pass one or more civil service examinations depending on the position desired.

As part time government workers, enrollees could earn all of the costs of tuition, books, and fees and most of their living expenses. They would also be eligible for civil service retirement benefits, vacation and leave allowances and low cost life and health insurance.

Called the Public Careers Program, the plan was devised by the University's Educational Counseling office in conjunction with the four agencies and the Federal Civil Service.

Homecoming Chairmen

• THE STUDENT COUNCIL selected Harvey Wertlieb and Eddie Dyson as the 1968 Homecoming Co-Chairmen.

A big-name band and a "bigger and better float parade" are planned for Homecoming, said Mr. Wertlieb.

"Go, Colonials," the tentative theme, will run throughout the week-end, which will begin with a football game Friday night, Nov. 4. Climaxing Homecoming will be the traditional dance at the National Guard Armory, Nov. 5.

Petitioning for sub-committee chairmanships will begin this week. All those who are interested are urged to file a petition in the Student Activities office.

Linksmen's Holiday Spoiled By Defeats

• GEORGETOWN, William and Mary, and Ohio University were the three tormentors who spoiled the golf squad's recent Easter vacation. After getting off to a winging start the Buff golfers suddenly ran into a three match losing streak to bring their season record to 2-3.

Georgetown inflicted a 6-1 defeat on the Buff. However, the match was much closer than the score indicated as three of Georgetown's points were decided on the 18th, 19th, and 20th holes respectively. Thus with a bit of luck the score could have been GW 4, Georgetown 3.

The Colonials were beaten by a strong William and Mary six 6-3 in their first Southern Conference match of the season. One of GW's points was won by Marv Singman's individual victory. His collaboration with John Dunn for the best ball point in their foursome produced a second point. The third point was produced by Tom Haly tying his individual match for a ½ point and by Haly and Dick Oden tying their best ball match for a ½ point.

Next, the GW six lost to Ohio U., winner of the recent Greenbrier Intercollegiate Tourney, by a 9-0 score. However, the Buff carried six of the nine points to the 17th green.

The Southern Conference Tournament will be played May 2 and 3 at Mid Pines, North Carolina. The contest is conducted on the basis of lowest team scores for 36 holes. However, only the lowest 4 scores of each team constitute a team's score. In effect, each team will have six men shooting at the top four positions of the team.

GW, a sleeper every year, has managed to bring home the championship for each of the last three years. Come-from-behind victories in 1958 and 1959 have made Buff one of the more dangerous contenders in the conference.

neys to Philadelphia to take on the shells of Fordham, St. Josephs, and Georgetown. According to team captain Roland Croft, the Colonials expect to beat out Fordham, but the other two squads will provide some tough competition. "The St. Joe's crew is always good and we are very evenly matched with Georgetown," Croft stated.

"The team is really up for the Georgetown meet. We both practice out of the same boat club and are on the river at the same time. We haven't had any actual races but the two teams are always trying to outdo each other. This will also be the only time that we face Georgetown in match competition, and we want to beat them in the worst way."

Tennis Team Takes Conference Matches

• GEORGE WASHINGTON'S TENNIS team compiled a 4 and 2 record over the past two weeks. The Colonials defeated the University of Virginia, Washington and Lee, Wisconsin, and West Virginia but lost matches to North Carolina and Georgetown.

The team finished third in a strong field in the recent Cherry Blossom Tournament held at Georgetown. After defeating Wisconsin 6-3, the Buff netters were defeated by North Carolina and Georgetown by identical scores, 8-1.

About the only bright spot for the Colonials was the showing of number 3 man, Ken Silverstone. Silverstone, who has been beaten only once this year, was the only winner in both the North Carolina and Georgetown matches. His steady defensive game was too much for his opponents, as he won his matches with the loss of only one set.

Jim Tarr, number one man in the Conference, found things a little rough in the tournament. He suffered his first defeats of the year, losing to Dick Rizzitelli of Georgetown and Bruce Sylvia of North Carolina.

However, the Buff found the conference teams more to their liking as they ran through Washington and Lee and Virginia with the loss of only one match.

In spite of losing to two top teams last week, the netmen continue to show marked improvement. They are highly regarded to retain the conference title for the fifth consecutive year.

Bernheisel-Lindeman Duo Wins; Colonial Crew Loses to Drexel

• IT'S A LONG way to the Pan American Games but the GW sailing duo of Dave Bernheisel and Bruce Lindeman have already successfully completed the first leg of the journey, and it's getting them at least as far as New York City.

This past Sunday, the two-some participated in an elimination race with teams from Georgetown and Lehigh. All six sailors raced individually and the top four from this race will go on to Kings Point, New York, to race in the Monotype Championships. The winner of the New York event will finally complete the last leg and represent the United States in the Pan American Games.

Sunday's race was of the round robin variety. Since visiting schools cannot transport their own boats for all the competitors, all schools have enough boats to put on a race. To eliminate the advantage the home team has in knowing which boats are best, all the contestants switch boats so that each one races a lap in every one of the boats.

The start is of the countdown type, and each of the sailors attempts to maneuver his boat so that he is crossing the starting line at top speed at the starting gun. In this race, Lindeman finished first and Bernheisel fourth to give GW the only entry to have both men qualify. After finals are over, the two will travel to New York to compete in the Monotype Championships.

Saturday, the Buff sailors hooked up with Duke in a real thriller that was decided by a quarter of a point as Duke eked out a 47 1/4-47 victory. In this match, both teams entered two boats which helped each other by blocking out the other school's boats.

In the only other competition the sailors have seen, they jour-

Bernheisel, along with four of his competitors, was swamped. Because of the wind, no more races could be held that day. That evening, Bernheisel's partner, Bruce Lindeman came down with an inflamed appendix and couldn't race.

won by forfeit from Adams Hall; then downed PSD 3-1 on Porter's 2-run single in the last inning.

In A-3 League action SX shut out the previous unbeaten Tarheels 4-0 behind John Jackson's 3-hit pitching. Chuck Packen and Andy Guida hit homers for SX. In their second game the Chimes had to go 8 innings before downing PSK 17-9.

A-2 League action saw the Med (F and S) take undisputed possession of first place with a 12-5 win over DTD.

AEPI (B) and TEP (B) emerged as front runners in the B Leagues. AEPI (B) downed SN 16-1 and Adams Hall 10-3 to take the lead in the B-1 League. TEP (B) scored a 24-8 win over DTD (B) to jump in front in the B-2 League race.

• THERE WAS A wake for the Colonial crew and even though it wasn't of the usual kind, it was sufficient to bury the hopes of the rowers in their race against Drexel Institute.

About midway in the race, a motor launch managed to evade the blockades along the river and sped up the race course leaving a towering wake behind it. The Colonial shell was forced to ride along this wake enroute to the finish line. Fighting the wake made the rowers too tired to lift the stroke rate as they approached the finish, and Drexel's sprint gave them the win going away.

Drexel's time for the mile and a quarter course was a respectable 6:25 and the Colonials finished at 6:31. Throughout the race the GW shell maintained a 35-stroke per minute pace but was unable to raise it in the sprint to the finish. Drexel kept up a pace comparable to GW's, but was able to hit a stroke rate of 38 to pull away.

Next, Saturday the Crew jour-

of the poor facilities for banking offered on the campus."

Further, Mr. Heckman said, that he will push for the establishment of a "true party system on the University campus. It has been my experience," he said, "that a Council, such as we had this year, with a party system, was far superior to any other Council in the past."

"My belief in the party system," he said, "does not mean that I don't believe in competition. I do. But the kind of competition which you want is continuing competition between continuing organizations."

"I think it unfortunate," he said, "that there is only one party. But I think so many competent people were gathered together from so many varied segments of the University that the CCP has a good slate. It has the top student leaders without a doubt.

"Furthermore," he said in defense of the party, "I don't think that just because so many offices went by acclamation in the CCP convention that there is a lack of interest in the party. There are many competent people in the CCP and I think the party did an excellent job in finding suitable places for these people on the ticket and for their talents."

"My only regret," Heckman concluded, "is that some members of the party lost sight of the essence of party government which requires that these candidates for party nominations who were unsuccessful, remain loyal to the party and its platform."

"If I had lost the party nomination," he said, "I never would have run against the party, especially as one of its founders."

Gatti, Hill, DeMelfi Lead Hitting Attack

by Seth Rosen

• GEORGE WASHINGTON DIAMOND sparklers have compiled a 5-2 record in the past two weeks. Splitting four games with Southern Conference opponents, they moved into third place in the conference.

The Buff opened with an overwhelming 19-5 victory over Washington and Lee. Hill pitched the route and also managed two hits. Leading the hitting attack were Des Gatti with a home run, a triple, a pair of singles, and five RBI's. Ron DeMelfi contributed a towering home run and a single to the assault on the Washington and Lee hurlers.

The visitors from the North, Vermont, ran into another hitting assault to be defeated 10-6. Power and Campana combined to pitch the Colonials to victory. Gatti and DeMelfi again led the hitting attack.

First place Citadel put an end to the short-lived winning streak, handing the Buff a 7-5 setback. Errors caused this defeat as

The Citadel scored five unearned runs. Citadel is undefeated in league play, and the Colonials don't have a return game.

Local rivals, Georgetown found the Buff too strong and fell to defeat in two games. Power, the big surprise of the pitching staff, struck out 19 Hoyas on the way to a 8-1 victory. Hardy, back from spring football practice, led the hitting with three RBI's. In the second game GW trounced Georgetown by the convincing score of 13-2. Campana went the route and gained his first victory. Hill, playing right field connected for four hits in five trips to the plate to pace the attack.

Buff Split

Once again the Colonials' annual trip to West Virginia ended in a split. In the first game Hill pitched superb ball in gaining his second victory of the season. The game went into extra innings as the Buff showed some clutch hitting. Power's triple began the rally with two outs in the second inning of the overtime. Then Hill and DeMelfi walked, to load the bases and to set the stage for Des Gatti's three run double. The final score was 4-3 as West Virginia's last inning rally fell short.

In the second game West Virginia rolled over pitcher Power 8-1. Errors again led to downfall; the first two runs scored were unearned and proved enough for victory. Bill Pashe had the sole hit for the Colonials, a leadoff single in the first inning.

This week the Buff plays Richmond, the second place team in the conference. In order to remain in contention for a conference title the Buff sorely need this victory.

SAE Captures Mural Trackmeet; AEPI, PAD, SX All Win Twice

by Dan Solt

• SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON fought off a late but thrilling bid by Sigma Chi to capture first place in last Saturday's annual Intramural track meet at Western High School. The SAE trackmen amassed a total of 96 points to Sigma's Chi's 64. The Med (F and S) runners scored 57 points for third place and PiKA's 46 took fourth place.

PIKA ran to a quick lead in the meet, sweeping the first two places in the 50-yard dash finals. Steve Deitz took first place away for teammate Bob Dunn.

SAE then took a commanding lead with 3 firsts in the next four field events. Ted Alexander of SAE bested Bill Smythe of the Deltas in the high jump for the SAE initial win. Smythe followed with a pole vault win over Max Farrington of SAE to keep the Deltas in close contention for team honors. Big Rudy Pohl of SAE took charge of the situation, gaining wins in the discus and shot-put contests. Reister of the Medics (F and S) placed second in the discus throw, and John Whiting of Delta Tau Delta placed second in the javelin contest to close out the first portion of the meet.

The scene then shifted to the distance and sprint track events where SX began its climb towards the top.

Scatback Joe Ozenovich (SX) and Jim Farley (PIKA) tied for first place in the 176-yard dash, and Lou DeSimone beat out Strathopoulos of DTPH in the 100-yard dash. Strathopoulos came back to win the 1/5-mile event with Shoemaker of Adams Hall placing second.

Chuck Packen scored another win for the Chimen a short while later, taking the broad jump by a scant 3 inches in a 18'8" jump to Strathopoulos' 18'5" leap.

Once again the SAE runners inserted a take charge man as Don Ardell ran to wins in the 2/5-mile and 3/5-mile distance runs. Ed Orem of SAE garnered second spot in the 2/5-mile to give SAE a sweep of that event. Larry Edelman of AEPI placed second in the 3/5-mile run.

Sigma Chi continued its uphill drive with a close win in the 2/5-mile relay. PiKA took second in the event. SAE paced by anchorman Don Ardell clinched the 3/5-mile relay.

Reister of Med (F and S) won the final event, the football throw, by tossing the pigskin 180'2". Bill Fearer of SX was second and Don Ardell third.

Ardell's third place points in this final event enabled him to win first place for individual honors with 26 1/2 points; DTPH's one-man gang, Strathopoulos, scored 24 points for second place honors. Rudy Pohl (SAE) scored 20 points for third place and Reister (Med F and S) scored 19 1/2 for fourth.

Professor Vincent DeAngelis, the meet director, was very pleased with the meet as 83 participants representing 12 organizations took part in various events.
